

EXTENDING A HELPING HAND

To help the needy and the underprivileged, students of JMV donated clothes and other useful things at the Sewa Ashram Narela, Delhi.

It was an endeavour to make students realise the significance of charity and impress upon them that they could make a difference by their charitable acts.

They learnt the important values of kindness and generosity and bring about a positive change in the world by their philanthropic act.