

AN ASSEMBLAGE TO IMBIBE VALUES THROUGH A RESIDENTIAL WORKSHOP

Model code of conduct on guidelines regarding Forbidden Acts and Misconduct on the part of students & why values are important.

Shree Atma Vallabh Jain Federation of Educational Institutions organized a residential workshop on Model code of conduct on guidelines regarding Forbidden Acts and Misconduct on the part of students & why values are important at Vallabh Smarak Jain Mandir Tirth from 5 January 2019 to 6 January 2019.

37 students and 40 teachers gathered from different schools with an aim to transmit values and empower students with life skills and code of conduct.

The workshop began by invoking the divine blessings through the recitation of Namokar Mahamantra followed by an array of presentations which helped all to ponder over the integral questions of relevance of values in life. Vidyalaya Co-Chairman, Sh. D.K Jain guided the students to look within and seek answer to the question 'Who am I'. Vidyalaya Principal, Ms Anupma Bhardwaj exhorted the students to abide to the 'code of conduct' laid for the students & follow the lawful advices of their teachers.

The group enjoyed a fun filled evening where students displayed their talent.

Mr. Ashok Jain Hony. Secretary of Federation blessed the students with his words of wisdom & elaborated the contribution of Guru Vallabh in the field of education. He also explained the pious mission of federation.

On 6 January 2019 after a session of Jeevan Vigyan, students exhibited their presentations on the relevance of universal & imperative value of respect, responsibility, resilience, integrity, harmony & unconditional love.

Esteemed guest, Sh. Jeetu Bhai Saha in his address elaborated upon the need to uphold high ideals & values for a fulfilling life.

The workshop provided an insight into the role core values play in shaping the life & destiny of an individual and community at large.
