

SANSKAR SAMVARDHAN PROGRAMME

To endow the progeny with virtues like compassion, sensitivity, respect and empathy etc; JMV organized a Sanskar Samvardhan Programme on 09.09.19.

The pious event commenced with lighting of the lamp by Sh. N. K. Jain, Vidyalaya chairman and other dignitaries. Namokar Mahamantra was recited by all to invoke heavenly blessings.

Thereafter, students enchanted shlokas which filled the ambience with divine and positive energy. Mr. Diwakar Raman, in his speech, emphasized on the need to instill humanistic values among children. He also made students cognizant about the principles of giving and serving humanity.

Honourable Chairman of the Vidyalaya Sh. N.K. Jain Ji and other dignitaries gave each student a sum of Rs. 50 on behalf of Matushri Rajkumari Sumerchand Jain,

Sh. D.K Jain family and asked them to spend it for the righteous purpose and share their experiences of utilizing the amount that they had spent for charitable purposes.

Mr. Diwakar Raman, Ms. Savita Rathee, Ms. Ruchi Gupta , Ms. Saroj Rana and Ms. Alka Sharma were also felicitated with certificate of appreciation by Harper Collins Publishers of India for their inspirational roles in changing many lives.

Students of the Vidyalaya presented a Sanskrit song ' Swag se Karengesabkaswagat' which enthralled the audience.

Honourable Co- chairman of the Vidyalaya, Sh. D. K. Jain blessed the assemblage with his pearls of wisdom and motivated them to practice philanthropy in their lives.

The event culminated with vote of thanks rendered by Shruti, Head girl of the Vidyalaya.
